

Dear Presbyterian Youth,

We wish to inform you about the John Derr Boger, Jr. Scholarship fund. The late Marion Boger established this scholarship fund in memory of her husband, John Derr Boger, Jr.

The intent of the fund is to provide financial assistance yearly to one or more youth who:

1. Are members of First Presbyterian Church
2. Show a need for financial assistance to further their education
3. Show adequate scholarship ability
4. Are graduates of a high school or preparatory school and
5. Have been accepted to a college or university or are presently enrolled at college or university

Preference will be given to first year college students, then to other students.

The scholarships are funded by interest earned from Mrs. Boger's monetary gift that has been invested. Scholarship funds will be paid by our church business office directly to an educational institution in July so that a full year's interest can be accumulated. The funds can be used for tuition, fees, books, room, board, or other institutional costs.

Applications are due in the church office no later than April 10, 2019.

Sincerely,
Scholarship Committee
